

Challenge 2

Homework – Friday 25th October 2024

Due in Wednesday 6th November 2024

With our Jolly Postman text and the Gingerbread Man, we have been looking at exclamation sentences. We would like you to practise this as well as your understanding of questions.

An exclamation shows us that someone feels strongly about something e.g. ouch!

A question asks us something e.g. how old are you?

Your task is to read each sentence and decide whether it is an exclamation sentence or a question.

	Exclamation	Question
Who's been eating my porridge?
What big eyes you have!
How kind you are!
Why did you break my chair?
This porridge is too hot!
Are you going to eat me?
Ouch!

Now have a go at writing your own exclamation sentences and questions about the picture.
