Writing 	This week we have begun writing reports about an animal. The children have chosen an animal to write about. We have also been working on the difference between there, their and they're. For homework, we would like children to work a little bit more on these tricky homophones. There is a worksheet to complete on the homework page. This is a helpful BBC Bitesize page that you might like to have a look at to remind yourself before you start.
